

Crash Course in Color & Line

With Amy Lohrmann

Do you want to better understand how color works? Do you want to improve the color harmonies in your artwork, wardrobe or home? Do you want to learn the language of lines? This course is for you!

This 1 ½ -2hr class is designed for a group of 6 or more people ages 12 through adult.

Suitable for family, friends, classroom or office setting.

$15 per person with a 6 person minimum

Artist Amy Lohrmann has been teaching art to children and adults for over 30 years.

This fun interactive class will explore color theory and how we perceive different line in order to make color and line work better for you. Everyone will leave with a small personally designed tree that they have drawn. Everything needed will be provided.
